Four prespecified performance claims

A claim is established only when its simultaneous lower bound is positive. The declared practical margin is already incorporated.
One-sided Bonferroni paired-t bounds: family α = 0.05, four comparisons, 24 independent repetitions. Labels give the displayed lower bound.
Dividing the absolute margin gap by the observed mean comparator loss is a display rescaling; the inferential decision is unchanged.